

YELLOW/ORANGE

- Abutilon palmeri* - Desert Mallow, beautiful orange flowers
Baileya multiradiata - Desert Marigold, happy yellow disks
Cleome isomeris - Bladderpod, burst of yellow flowers
Dendromecon sp. - Bush Poppy, many bright yellow flowers
Grindelia stricta var platyphylla - Gumplant, bright yellow
Oenothera hookeri, stubbei - Evening Primrose, Large yellow papery flowers
Solidago sp. - Goldenrod, bright yellow upright flower stalks
Sphaeralcea ambigua - Desert Mallow, rich orange flowers

RED/PINK

- Antigonon leptopus* - Coral Vine, abundant hot pink flowers
Calycanthus occidentalis - Western Spicebush, beautiful, large, deep red flowers
Chilopsis linearis - Desert Willow, attractive delicate large pink flowers clusters
Epilobium sp. - Fuchsia, bright red tubular flowers
Fallugia paradoxa - Apache Plume, feathery pink tinted seed plumes
Justicia californica - Chuparosa, striking, tubular red flowers
Lobelia laxiflora - Mexican Lobeila, red orange prolific tubular flowers
Malacothamnus fasciculatus - Chaparral Mallow, light pink flowers
Mirabilis laevis - Four O'clock, many bright pink/purple flowers
Opuntia sp. - Prickly Pear, red edible fruit, preceded by yellow to pink flowers
Prunus ilicifolia, lyonii - Holly-leaf/Catalina Cherry, red cherries preceded by cream flowers
Rhus integrifolia - Lemonadeberry, reddish berries

WHITE/GOLD

- Asclepias* sp. - Milkweed, white to pink flower clusters, monarch host plant
Cercocarpus sp. - Mountain Mahogany, attractive seed head.
Comarostaphylos diversifolia - Summer Holly, white flowers followed by red berries
Eriogonum sp. - Buckwheat, many have white/cream flowers that turn rust colored
Holodiscus discolor - Oceanspray/Cream Bush, cream colored sprays of flowers
Hesperoyucca whipplei - Our Lord's Candle, tall white flower stalk
Heteromeles arbutifolia - Toyon, large white flower clusters followed by bright red berries
Leymus condensatus - Wildrye, upright tan/gold flower stalks and seed head
Lyonothamnus floribundus - Catalina Ironwood, large cream colored flower clusters
Muhlenbergia rigens - Deergrass, long upright slender tan/gold flower/seed heads
Sambucus nigra ssp caerulea - Elderberry, cream flower clusters followed by blue berries

BLUE/PURPLE

- Mahonia* sp. - Barberry, purple/blue berries preceded by yellow sprays of flowers in spring
Monardella sp. - Coyote Mint, lavender, butterfly attracting flower clusters
Frangula (Rhamnus) sp. - Coffeeberry, red aging to blue berries
Salvia clevelandii - Sage, a range of lavender to a rich purple blue flower whorls
Trichostema lanatum - Woolly Blue Curls, fuzzy lavender to purple flowers